

The International Children's Games

The International Children's Games are for children aged between twelve and fifteen years old from all over the world. Every year, there are more than 40 countries and there are 2,000 athletes from 87 different cities in the games. In 2013, the games are from August 14th to 19th, and they are in Windsor Essex, Ontario in Canada. In December 2014 the games are in Australia.

Amber Lefler is from Windsor Essex. She can swim very well. Here she is at the 2012 Games in Daegu, South Korea. Can she swim really fast again in her hometown in the 2013 games?

There are five sports in the games. Can you swim? Can you play volleyball? Then these games are for you. You can't swim and you can't play volleyball? Don't worry! Come and watch!
